LOCAL BRIEFS

HAVE you registered?
THE State Fair at Raleigh will hold forth from the 19th to the 24th of this month and there are $5,000 to be given away in premiums. The usual reduced rates of fare will prevail on all railroads.

The new brick stables of Mr. Asher Edwards are now about completed and will be ready for the coming season's stock trade. They are large and substantial and will compare favorably with any in the State.

HER many friends and the public generally who have read with interest the lyric verse from her fluent pen in the years that are gone, from time to time, will learn with regret that Mrs. E. A. Wats is now a severe sufferer from rheumatism and that she is unable to leave her bed.

R. B. DAVIS has opened a first-class beef market at his old stand on East Centre St. which will be supplied at all times with choice beef, pork, sausage etc. He has employed the services of Mr. John Gardner who thoroughly understands the business.

Mrs. R. D. C. Richardson has become interested in the painting and buying of china. She and Miss Harrison, of Pittsboro, Pa., are going to open a class in Wilmington and in other towns of the State at an early day. They have a beautiful display of their work at the jewelry store of Mr. L. D. Giddens Jr., in this city for a few days.

THE handsome and admirably appointed jewelry store of Mr. R. A. Creech, on West Centre-street, has taken on its fall stock and is rewording in its galaxy of beautiful things. He has everything to be found in a city jewelry store and he is just now making a special run of clocks that embrace every desirable variety.

THE rush of tobacco on this market Friday was great—so great that the Farmers' Warehouse, which is being superbly patronized, had to have two sales in order to accommodate its patrons. The fame of Goldsboro as the best tobacco and cotton market in the State is fast being recognized as a substantial fact by the farmers for fifty miles around in all directions.

THE city is being elaborately billed for the appearance here on next Saturday of Sparks Show. A great many of our people and the small boys particularly remember this attraction that held forth on the court house square last season, and judging from the handsome lithographs displayed the show has increased in size and in attraction this season and will no doubt be greeted by a crowded tent.

A COLORED excursion to Morehead City, claiming to be "the last of the season" will be run by Guess & Williams on the 18th inst. The cheap rate of $1.00 for the round trip from this city will no doubt induce a great many to take a farewell look at "old ocean" for this year and also present an opportunity for those who so desire to attend the Great Annual Union meeting which comes off at Beaufort on that date.

QUITE a number of old Republic "war horses"—of '68 fame, are to be seen most any day these times in Goldsboro, in close and open confab with local conferees. It is the first time they have shown any evidences of life since the Democracy rose in its might and crushed them in the years that are gone, but should not be forgotten. What does it augur—their activity now? Democrats should ponder this question.

THE TIME for REGISTRATION in GOLDSBORO, as well as the rest of the County, is BETWEEN 9 O'CLOCK A. M. AND 4 O'CLOCK P. M., and the days for registration are September 26th, October 3rd, October 10th, and October 17th.

PHILLIPS MIDDYETTE.

Daily Argus, Wednesday, Sept. 30.

St. John M. E. Church was the scene of a beautiful, profuse and artistic decorations and brilliant illumination last night, and was thronged to standing room, the happy occasion being the marriage of two of Goldsboro's young people who possess the priceless wealth of many friends, which is infinitely better than worldly goods and ephemeral luxuries.

The fortunate groom was Mr. W. R. Phillips, the bright young man of the Argus local staff, and the fair young bride was Miss Ellen, the amiable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Middyette.

The ceremony was impressively performed by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Bristowe, to the soft notes of the organ, presided over by Mrs. John O. Royal.

The bridal attendants were: Mr. Chas. A. Brown, of the Argus, "best man," with Miss Nora Middyette, sister of the bride, as "first maid."

Mr. Ed. Sasser with Miss Mary Middyette.

Mr. John Foust with Miss Ella Tew.

Mr. J. Calvin Privett, of the Argus, with Miss Mollie Phillips.

Mr. Dennis Cobb with Miss Minnie Davis, of Wilson.

The ushers were: Messrs. Geo. W. Brown, foreman of the Argus, and Robert Lewis.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple with their bridal attendants repaired to their own home on John street, where they will at once begin the pleasant duties of housekeeping, and where an open reception was held last night, which was largely attended by their hosts of friends, who called to extend their good wishes and partake of the hospitalities of the joyous occasion.

The display of bridal presents was numerous, elaborate and very beautiful, the aggregate attesting the widespread and substantial popularity of the young couple.

THE ARGUS is very sincere in the tender of its best wishes for abiding happiness and abundant prosperity.

Spain's Victims in the Philippine.

Madrid, Oct. 2.—Some of the men put to death by General Blanco in Cavite, Philippine Islands, are: Francisco Osorio, a half breed and a very wealthy man; N. Sangley and Maximo Inocencio, rich property owners; Luis Aguapa, a contractor for the navy yard; Victoriano Luciano, pharmacist; Dr. Hugo Percy, Jose Lallana, Antonio San Ague in, a merchant; Agapito, Concha, a teacher; Feliciano Cabuco, Mariano Gregorio, Eugenio Cabezas, Sarmiento, Eugenio, Silvestre, Modesto Sarmiento and Ramon Peratta, all prominent citizens; Mariano Magna, a Guardia Civil, and the two jail keepers, who, the government says, were pledged to release the prisoners at a given moment.

40,000 More Troops For Cuba.—Madrid, October 2.—The government has decided to send 40,000 more troops to Cuba to reinforce the Spanish army in the island and also to strengthen the forces in Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands, with 2,000 and 3,000 men respectively.

A free pardon has been offered to all who have evaded service in the army, upon provision that they return and complete their terms of service.

Advices from Havana say that the insurgents have executed the Leader Rodriguez by hanging. The reason for the act is not given.

SPECIAL SALE.—For a few days on Ladies' Button Shoes. Only 75 cents at Asher Edwards.

THE FISHER BROTHERS.

The World's Most Renowned Aerial Artists.

Of all the varied performances given by the big Water-L Main Show, and is given enough for three shows, there is none so absolutely captivating as the aerial act of the Fisher Brothers and the dancing lady aerialist, Miss Louis Bert who performs with them. This noted trio have just returned from a tour of the old world, in which they captivated the most representative audiences of the gay cities of the continent. Their act of that peculiar nature, which simply beggars description, and defies language to do at justice, head down dives, and headlong swift pirouettes and somersaults high in the circumambient air away above the head of the audience. Laps with bird-like agility from high perch to perch and from swinging diminutive bar to bar. Wheel flights and passages like winged deizens to the upper ether with sure hands and foot and eye; coming, going, returning darts, leaping, somersaulting tumbling, vanishing and appearing, wonderfully agile, active, intrepid, graceful, blood curdling, rheumal aerial performances. Two perfect male forms of athletic mould, and one dainty, modest, willowly, beautiful female actually doing tree-walks in the air.

This attraction is another of the many which singly would be whole shows in themselves, but are only features of the three ring circus, five continent menagerie, wild west, Roaming hippodrome and trained wild beast show controlled and managed by Walter L. Main, and which will positively exhibit here at Goldsboro on Tuesday Oct. 13th, giving two inimitable performances, one at 2 and one at 8 p. m.

THE SOUDAN CAMPAIGN

No Advance South of Dongola

Contemplated This Year.—London, October 2.—It is semi-officially announced to-day that no advance of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition South of Dongola is contemplated during 1896. The whole province of Dongola will be held by Forts and El Dabben strategic points south of and on the road of Dongola, will be permanently garrisoned, and gun boats will patrol the river.

In addition the province of Dongola will be recognized; British Egyptian administrators will be appointed; a police force will be established; only British troops, with machine guns and gunners, will be kept to the front; the Railway will be completed to Kalbar, at the last cart-track north of Dongola, and the work will be done under the supervision of British engineers. It is further pointed out that further advance at present is impossible owing to the condition of the Egyptian finances. The London, October 2.—Advices received here from the dervish headquarters show that disputes have broken out among the Khalifa's lieutenants, and that, in consequence, the various empires are keeping their own flocks around them. It is said that the influence of the Khalifa is shattered.

Knights of old—crusaders who went to conquer the world, could not hope to succeed unless they were in virtue, hearty health. A man cannot face difficulties if his stomach isn't in good order. Disordered digestion will make a sluggish coward out of any man. It makes his mind stagnant, and he cannot think quickly enough to accomplish anything. It makes his movements slow, and takes all of the snap out of him. Every man in business in America has a fight on his hands just as much as ever had belted knight. It is a matter of life and death, just the same with him as it was with the crusader. Indigestion and all the ills that go with it, most frequently start in constipation. That keeps all sorts of impurities in the body, forces them into the blood, and so poisons the whole system. Constipation is one of the commonest ills, and it is traceable most of the disorders that men and women suffer from. Get a firm hold on a man, it is most difficult to overcome it. Temporary relief can be obtained in a thousand ways. The medicines on the market that will help as long as you take them. There is only one remedy that is a real remedy—that you don't have to keep on taking forever. That is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They are light, sugar-coated granules, mild and efficient in their action. They effect a permanent cure. You don't become a slave to their use, as with other pills.

If you will send at once stamps to cover cost of mailing only, we will send you free the most useful medical book extant. This is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice, in plain English; a book of 100 pages, profusely illustrated, at the great expense of preparation, which has been covered by the sale of 500,000 copies at the regular price of 25 cents. It is published by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

GENERAL BELIEF THAT BETTER TIMES ARE NEAR.

The Continued Advance in Wheat and the Rise in Cotton Gives Encouragement.

New York, Oct. 2.—R. G. Dun & Co. will say to-morrow in their weekly review of trade: The complete report of failures for the quarter, which ended with Wednesday, shows an increase which would be surprising if political causes were not obvious. In number six and a half per cent. less than in the panic quarter of 1893, failures for the quarter show liabilities 11.1 per cent. less, amounting to $73,285,349, against $97,866,682 in the previous half years.

The continued advance in wheat may prove of the utmost importance. It has been 1.12 cents for the week, and ten cents since September 2d, and is mainly due to short crops abroad and unusual foreign demand.

Cotton has weakened after its sudden rise because the demand for goods has relaxed into hand-to-mouth buying, and print cloths are lower, 25 per cent. Some in jury has been done by recent storms, but the market seems not now in the humor to magnify them.

Revising confidence is felt in the stock market, which has slowly reached an average of 70 cents a share for railways, though trusts are weaker. While each bound tonnage is large from Chicago in September 249,108 against 241,154 last year, the westward movement of merchandise is small and rates are low. So that earnings reported for September fell 3 per cent. below last year's and 8.6 per cent. below those of 1892. There are unmistakably encouraging signs in the great industries, although the actual gain in working force employed or in new orders received a'right. But the strong demand for material, for pig iron, hides and wool, as for cotton, does not diminish and has already gone far enough to stiffen prices.

Winston Sentinel: With the exception of possibly a few finishing touches by the painters, the exterior of Hon. J. C. Buxton's handsome West End residence is about completed. When the waste lumber, etc., shall have been cleared away and the grounds set in order, the place will present quite a imposing appearance.

Lincoln Courier: Wife of Dr. W. W. Nolen, died at Cronse, Lincoln county, Sept. 24, 1896, aged 58 years. Raised in Gaston county, from girlhood in fellowship of the Presbyterian church. Faithful wife and mother, suffering from long and painful rheumatism.

Greenville Reflector: C. E. Wilson, a former editor of the Wilson Advance, and who four years ago created such a sensation by disappearing mysteriously, passed through on Wednesday night's train going to Kinston.

AS YOU LIKE IT.

Selections by the Editor for Many Readers of Many Minds, But With a Moral For All.

Earnestness alone makes life eternity.

All true work is sacred; in all true work, were it but true hand-labor, there is something of divineness. Labor, wide as the earth, has its summit in Heaven.

Remember now and always that life is no idle dream, but a solemn reality, based upon eternity, and encompassed by eternity. Find out your task; stand to it; the night cometh when no man can work.

Man, symbol of eternity, imprisoned into time—it is not thy works, which are mortal, infinitely little, and the greatest no greater than the least, but only the spirit thou workest in, that can have worth or continuance.

Every ten noticed that nine out of every ten people who drive a horse, run the animal down hill; also, that the same number of drivers out of ten invariably whip a horse when it gets frightened. Good horsemen never do either.

As for the last mentioned case, a driver has but to take the matter to himself to decide whether it is the correct way to handle a horse. At the moment he himself were terribly frightened would he want to be simultaneously beaten? An intelligent horse is like a human being to a greater extent than is realized, and he should be kindly talked to more and whipped less.

The powers for evil in this world seem to be more potent than the powers for good. There is a constant and mighty effort going on to keep humanity in check and make it better. Why should this have to be? It seems to be given up that evil is easier to fall into than good, and the young are continually being warned against life's dangers and pitfalls as though their natural instincts and impulses for good were not sufficiently invulnerable against the encroachments of evil. It is strange that the lesson of a good life, and the peace and happiness that attend it, isn't a stronger lesson than it is; strange that evil can appear to a person in a more alluring guise than goodness wears.

In the latter part of 1864, President Lincoln, writing to his friend Elkins in Illinois, said: "Yes, we may all congratulate ourselves that this cruel war is nearing its close. It has cost a vast amount of treasure and blood. The best blood of the flower of American youth has been freely offered upon our country's altar that the nation might live. It has been, indeed, a trying hour for the republic; but I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country. As a result of the war corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all the wealth is aggregated in a few hands, and the republic is destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war. God grant that my suspicions may prove groundless."

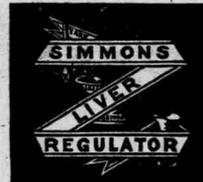

Letters received at Constantinople from Kharput give terrible details of a massacre which recently occurred at Eguin. Two thousand persons were killed.

Report from Georgetown, S. C., says that a three-masted schooner, apparently well loaded, is lying near Debordeau beach. Her foremast is gone and she is badly wrecked.

General Palmer and Bickner will meet in Chicago October 8, and start on a special train through Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, and Iowa. General Buckner leaves for Chicago to day.

SILVER OR GOLD.

Better than either is a healthy liver. If the liver is O. K. the man is O. K. His blood is kept pure, his digestion perfect, and he can enjoy life and act intelligently and patiently upon the questions of the day. You all know what to take. You have known it for years. It is Simmons Liver Regulator—

For years you and your fathers have found it of sterling worth. It is and always has been put up only by J. H. Zeilin & Co. Take note but the genuine. It has the Red Z on the front of the wrapper, and nothing else is the same, and nothing so good.

Concord Standard: The dry kiln at J. L. Peck's saw mill in No. 6 township was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon. About 25,000 feet of lumber was consumed with the kiln.

There are a great many of the unfortunate ones in this world, greater in number than those who are blessed with good digestion. To some people the greatest misfortune is not to be able to eat every thing set before them. "I suffered for years with Dyspepsia, and every thing I ate disagreed with me. I was disgusted to try Simmons Liver Regulator and was cured. I now eat everything."—M. Bright, Madison Parish, La.

Beaufort Herald: The launch Sadie, Capt. Charles Springle, made the trip successfully with the mail from Morehead to Beaufort Tuesday night during the fierce gale. Sailors say that no sail boat could have come over in such a hurricane. The Sadie is a safe boat and is by far the best means of transportation between here and Morehead.

Greensboro Record: Last Monday Mrs. Holt, mother of Messrs. J. A. and M. H. Holt, left her home at Oak Ridge to visit another son, R. O. Holt, at his home in Alexandria, Va. Last night about 10 o'clock Zeb. V. Taylor received a telegram from Mrs. R. O. Holt, stating that the elder Mrs. Holt was killed in the cyclone of Tuesday night. The wires to Oak Ridge being down, Mr. Taylor managed to get Sumnerfield and had a messenger from there go to Oak Ridge and notify her sons. They came down this morning, but the wires north being all down they could learn nothing. However, the morning mail brought a letter to Mr. Taylor, stating that Mrs. Holt was instantly and painlessly killed and that her son, R. O. Holt, was in bed with an injured leg, sustained in the storm. It was also stated that their residence was blown to pieces and that it was a miracle they escaped. No further particulars were given, the writer, Mrs. R. O. Holt, stating that she was so prostrated she could not write to her son. Mr. J. A. Holt left to-day to bring the remains of his mother home and is expected to reach here to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock. It is a most terrible calamity and the bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire county in their deep trouble.
